CELLAR NOTES

Ripe fruit was harvested in perfect condition to produce a powerful yet elegant style of Gewürztraminer.

TASTING NOTES

Orange blossom, honey and toast, and freshly baked gingerbread lead this delicately scented wine to a generously spicy and textured palate. This wine will reward cellaring.

Cellar with the confidence of screwcap.

Anything spicy! Spicy Asian style dishes (particularly Thai) or Mexican/Spanish dishes.

REVIEWS

The 2008 vintage is a medium style, full-bodied and finely textured, with peachy, spicy flavours, showing a touch of complexity, lively acidity and impressive intensity. ★★★★★ (4 stars), Michael Cooper's Wine Buyers Guide 2010
